

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SERGEY GAPONYUK,

Plaintiff,

v.

EVGENY ALFEROV, ET AL.

Defendants.

CASE NO.: 2:23-cv-01317-KJM-JDP

DISCOVERY MATTER

PROPOSED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure by non-party Binance Holdings, Ltd. in this action may involve the production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Such information relates to the order signed by Magistrate Judge Jeremy D. Peterson on December 15, 2023 (Dkt. No. 27). Accordingly, the Plaintiff hereby stipulates to and petitions the court to enter the following proposed Protective Order. Plaintiff Sergey Gaponyuk acknowledges that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles and the other restrictions included in this protective order. Plaintiff Sergey Gaponyuk further acknowledges, as set forth below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle him to file confidential information under seal; Local Rule 141 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

Plaintiff Sergey Gaponyuk understands that Binance Holdings, Ltd. may provide information related to the holders of certain cryptocurrency accounts. This information may

1 include the holders' names and other identifying information such as physical addresses, IP
2 addresses, transaction histories, payment methods, and withdrawal destinations. This data should 3 not be exposed to unauthorized access or used for any purpose other than the prosecution of this 4 litigation.

5 Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall be construed to require or mandate that 6 any Party disclose or produce privileged information or records that could be designated as 7 Confidential Documents/Protected Material hereunder.

9 2. DEFINITIONS

10 2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 11 information or items under this Order.

12 2.2 "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is 13 generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule
14 of Civil Procedure 26(c).

15 2.3 Counsel of Record: attorneys who are retained to represent or advise a party to 16 this action and have appeared in this action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law
17 firm which has appeared on behalf of that Party (as well as their support staff)

18 2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that 19 it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as "CONFIDENTIAL."

20 2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the 21 medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, 22 testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or 23 responses to discovery in this matter.

24 2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to 25 the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a 26 consultant in this action.

27 2.7 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal 28

entity not named as a Party to this action.

2.8 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared in this action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of that party.

2.9 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).

2.10 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in this action.

2.11 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

2.13 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

2.14 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the

1 public record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party
2 prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who
3 obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating
4 Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

5 4. DURATION

6 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by 7 this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court
8 order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all 9 claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after 10 the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearing, remands, trials, or reviews of this action.

11 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

12 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party
13 or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care
14 to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards.
15 The Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents,
16 items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, 17 documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 18 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

19 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 20 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 21 unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary
22 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

23 If it comes to a Party's or a non-party's attention that information or items that it 24 designated for protection do not qualify for protection at all, or do not qualify for the level of 25 protection initially asserted, that Party or non-party must promptly notify all other parties that it
26 is withdrawing the mistaken designation.
27
28

1 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order,
2 or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for 3 protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or 4 produced.

5 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

6 (a) For information in documentary form, (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but 7 excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing 8 Party affix the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains protected material. If only 9 a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also 10 must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the 11 margins).

12 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 13 Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other 14 proceeding, all protected testimony.

15 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other 16 tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the 17 container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend
18 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, 19 the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

20 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 21 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s
22 right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a 23 designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is 24 treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

26 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

27 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of 28

1 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's confidentiality
2 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 3 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to 4 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 5 original designation is disclosed.

7 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution
8 process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis
9 for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written 10 notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this 11 specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in 12 good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice-to-voice dialogue or by 13 email) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must 14 explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give 15 the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the 16 circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen
17 designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if 18 it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is 19 unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner.

20 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Challenging Party and the Designating Party cannot 21 resolve a challenge without court intervention, the Challenging Party shall file and serve a 22 motion challenging a confidentiality designation under Civil Local Rule 251 within 21 days of 23 the initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer
24 process will not resolve their dispute, whichever is later, including a challenge to the designation
25 of a deposition transcript or any portions thereof. Each such motion must be accompanied by a 26 competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer
27 requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph. Failure by the Challenging Party to make such 28

1 a motion including the required declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if applicable) shall
2 automatically waive the objection to the confidentiality designation for each challenged
3 designation.

4 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Challenging
5 Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose
6 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to 7 sanctions. All parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to 8 which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the challenge.

10 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

11 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed
12 or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for preparing,
13 prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be 14 disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order.
15 When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of 16 section 14 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

17 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and 18 in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

19 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise
20 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may 21 disclose any information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:

22 (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as 23 employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the 24 information for this litigation, each of whom, by accepting receipt of such Protected Material,
25 agree to be bound by this Stipulation and Order;

26 (b) The employees of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary
27 for this litigation – each of whom, by accepting receipt of such Protected Material, agree to be 28

bound by this Stipulation and Order;

(c) Experts (as defined in this Stipulation and Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation – each of whom, by accepting receipt of such Protected Material, agree to be bound by this Stipulation and Order;

(d) the court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters, their staffs, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation – each of whom, by accepting receipt of such Protected Material, agree to be bound by this Stipulation and Order;

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary – each of whom, by accepting receipt of such Protected Material, agree to be bound by this Stipulation and Order. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulation for Protective Order.

(g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

(a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and;

1 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by all
2 sides in any such situation, while adhering to the terms of this order.

3 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the 4 subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as 5 “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order
6 issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party
7 shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material –
8 and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving 9 Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

11 The purpose of this section is to ensure that the affected Party has a meaningful 12 opportunity to preserve its confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or court 13 order issued.

14 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS
15 LITIGATION

16 (a) The terms of this Stipulation and Order are applicable to information produced by 17 a Non-Party in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information produced by 18 Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by 19 this Stipulation and Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-20 Party from seeking additional protections.

21 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a
22 Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement
23 with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, then the Party shall:

24 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some 25 or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

26 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective Order 27 in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of the 28

1 information requested; and

2 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

3 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 14
4 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce
5 the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party
6 timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its 7 possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a
8 determination by the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the 9 burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

11 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

12 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected
13 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulation and Order, 14 the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the 15 unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all copies of the Protected Material, 16 (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of 17 this Order, and (d) request such person or persons consent to be bound by the Stipulation and 18 Order.

19 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
20 MATERIAL

21 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently 22 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 23 Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This 24 provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery
25 order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of 26 Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a
27 communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product
28

1 protection, the parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order
2 submitted to the court.

3 12. MISCELLANEOUS

4 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to 5 seek its modification by the court in the future.

6 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective 7 Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any 8 information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly,
9 no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material
10 covered by this Protective Order.

11 12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party
12 or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in 13 the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 14 Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 141. Protected Material may only be filed 15 under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at 16 issue. A sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the Protected Material at 17 issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law.
18 If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal is denied by the court, then the 19 Receiving Party may file the information in the public record unless otherwise instructed by the 20 court.

21 13. PUBLICATION OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

22 13.1 Filing of Protected Material. Without advance written permission from the 23 Designating Party, or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a
24 Receiving Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party
25 that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 141
26 and/or 141.1, to the extent applicable.
27
28

1 13.2 Public Dissemination of Protected Material. A Receiving Party shall not publish,
2 release, post, or disseminate Protected Material to any persons except those specifically
3 delineated and authorized by this Stipulation and Order; nor shall a Receiving Party publish,
4 release, leak, post, or disseminate Protected Material/Confidential Documents to any news
5 media, member of the press, website, or public forum (except as permitted regarding filings with 6 the court in this action and under seal).

8 14. FINAL DISPOSITION

9 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, each Receiving Party must return
10 all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in this 11 subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and 12 any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected
13 Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the 14 Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day
15 deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was 16 returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, 17 abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the 18 Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel is entitled to retain an archival copy
19 of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, 20 correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and 21 consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such 22 archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective 23 Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION).

25 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.
